four hundred by fifty feet, representing the active velcane and molten lave lake, which is its natural dimensions is six hun-dred feet deep and rive miles in circumferance, containing more than two score of lakes and fountains, part or all of which are in continuous action. To see a beiling, surging, rearing take of molten lava dashing against the sides of a wast pit and throwing thousands of jets of red hot liquid into the air, is said to be one of the most sublime and awe-inspiring scenes on earth. To transfer this to canvass and by means of proper lights and applicates recording to proper lights and appliances reproduce nature in airlaing truthfulness, will be the work of the celebrated artist, Walker W. Burredge, of San Francisco, who visited the islands last fall for the purpose of viewing this wonderful volcane, and made a working sketch of it at the time. And also will come the pative Hawaiian band, which created such a furore among the lovers of music on the Pacific coast a few years ago, and that yields the paim to none-lest it be the Seventh regiment band of New York.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL. Mr. Thurston, one of the commissioners, Is a prominent member of the legal profession at Honolulu, and, though only thirty-five years of age, was the leader of the composite powers of the king and established the large measure of popular gov.

Buring the three years succeeding that memorable creats he was prime minister, and is now member elect of the upper house of the legislature which convenes next month.

From Mr. Waish, als compasion and fellow commissioner, a wealthy sugar planter of long residence at the Islands, it was learned that business and political affairs are growing somewhat serious, owing very largely to the blow which the sugar industry received from the McKinley bill. As a result of this, sugar has been raised at a loss, and this in turn has produced a stringency in the money market and a loss of confidence generally. With this condition of afairs confronting them, all classes of confidence generally. With this condition of afairs confronting them, all classes of the people, native and foreign born, are seriously considering with the United States, or if that cannot be secured, them with Canada or Great Britain. As to the plan or date when this is likely to be brought about, no details were given, but the feeling among those who have studied the situation favors the throwing of the strong and protecting arm of a great nation over the gens of the sen. The Americans represent the atronges clement of the foreign population, having four fifths of the wealth and doing nine teaths of the commerce and carrying trade. The political stability and future growth of business depends on the support of a good government, for there is concentrated in a small area some of the most difficult problems of a social and political instante how to this country.

Both greatlemen expressed themselves as much ploased with Salt Lake. Mr. Walsh was made to the salt of the s ments which go to constitute a metropolitan city.

In 1890, the population of the entire group of cight islands was 90,000. The exports are rice, coffee and fruits, that of sugar being 130,000 tons, and the capital invested in that industry alone being about $33,000,000. In 1890 the islands were of little importance commercially; in 1890 their foreign frade exceeded $20,000,000, and the exports from San Francisco to Hawaii exceeded those to any other ports of the Pacific.
